Persons subscribing to more than one can have them sent from the publication office by mail, to the United States, California, England or any part of the world. As soon as our arrangements for that purpose are completed, we shall enlarge the paper, and issue the "Advertiser" semi-weekly, (every Wedmesday and Saturday.)

A Good Excuse .- A juror's name was called by the clerk. The man advanced to the judge's desk got the punctuation in the wrong place, which made

"Judge, I should like to be excused."

"It is impossible," said the judge, decidedly. "But judge if you knew my reasons!"

"Weil, sir, what are they?"

"Why, the fact is," and he paused.

"Well, sir, proceed," continued the judge.

Ocut between my fingers!" The judge, who was a very sober man, solemnly and impressively exclaimed, "Clerk, scratch that man out!
